January Minutes Approved

Lockmaster's house update First floor is completed and stable.

MATAC (Mayor's committee on transportation) per Roger Kalter there is an ongoing problem with vandalism to trail signage and inadequate/defective signage where the Valley Gem pedestrians cross.

Per Ryan Smith a committee of community members are working on a grant from America's Best Communities to save the Harmer Bridge by making it a main link in the trail system. Grants in the amount of 1, 2, & 3 million will be awarded.

Maytac meets the 2nd Wednesday, 1:00 pm, at 304 Putnam Street

Devola Multiuse Trail Dan Jones sent a letter of support for the trail to receive another grant being written by the committee.

MRCC Boat Building Currently Roger Patterson is building his own kayak at Dan and Teresa's.

Harmer Rowing Club per Peter Priggee April 11 Lindamood Regatta will be in Marietta

New Business 2015 Calendar of Events for the year was finalized and approved. All three new events were discussed, amended, and approved. Teresa will revise and forward to Rick for posting to our website. Teresa is sending club announcements to the newspapers. Dan and Teresa will work on publishing the calendar and events with the newspaper and distributing copies to local bicycle shops. Please spread the word and invite new folks who might become club members!

Ryan Smith, representing Marietta Main Street, made the request to include the Lockmaster's House as a site for the Hidden Places-Secret Spaces Tour, scheduled for May 16, 2015 from 1:00-4:00 pm. An actor will host visitors on tour and tell the history of the house. This is a fund raiser for Marietta Main Street. The club approved the request. We will need to set a date for a spring cleaning project!

Bike Path Cleanup Marie Ralston pointed out the need for the club to clean up our part of the trail from the Harbor to the tunnel. Roger Kalter pointed out the upcoming community day of service. It was decided to meet at the Lockmaster's House on April 18th 9:00 AM. Please bring brooms, etc. for cleanup!

Phooey on February Potluck Despite the weather, we had a great turnout! Many thanks to Rick and Marie for hosting!

Meeting Adjourned @ 8:30 pm.

Next Meeting: April 15, 6:30 Pre-Meeting for River Rendezvous, 7:00 pm Club Meeting AT THE LOCKMASTER'S HOUSE
